

Overview of the application for approval of construction planning regarding “newly installed buildings” of Specific Safety Facilities for Genkai nuclear power station units No. 3 and 4

1. Application for approval of construction planning

This application is for large equipment such as the water tank and new buildings to house such equipment.

Overview of Specific Safety Facilities (SSF)

※ SSFs

They have a function to prevent damages of containment vessel. They are preparation in case cooling functions for nuclear reactor stop and a reactor core gets fatal damages due to terrorism such like an intentional collision of jumbo airplane toward a reactor support building.